OBITUARY.

Miss Nannie Davis, aged about twenty-five, died of consumption Wednesday night at the home of her father, Frank Davis, on Railroad street, near Duncau avenue. Funeral Saturday morning at ten o'clock at the Christian Church.

The angel of death has again entered the Ward home near this city and taken away one of its beloved members. Mrs. Elizabeth Spears Ward, wife of Jay Quincy Ward, died Wednesday night at eleven o'clock, after a dangerous illness continuing several weeks. She was a daughter of Henry E. Spears, of Louisville, and was a sister of John W. Spears, of this city. The deceased was about twenty-five years old and was one of the loveliest young women in Kentucky—beautiful, gentle, modest, womanly—and was a consistent member of the Second Presbyterian Church. The demise of Mrs. Ward is a sad shock to a legion of friends who extend heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing relatives, and especially to the bereaved husband, who has in a few years lost his sister, father and grandfather.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at half-past one o'clock at the Ward home by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. Burial at the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Brutus Clay, E. F. Clay, Jr., Catesby Spears, Aylette Buckner, Dr. Joe Boyd, Dr. Frank Fithian, T. H. Clay, Jr., J. Miller Ward.

Mrs. Cleora Bright Savage, wife of Rev. George Savage, died yesterday in Winchester. Funeral this afternoon at one o'clock. Burial at Lexington.

THE FARM AND TURF.

News For the Farmer, Trader and Stock Raiser.

Ed A. Tipton's royally bred filly, Mary McCoy, by Henry of Navarre—Laura Stone, won a fast race for two year olds in New York the other day. The added money was $700. Turney Bros. Ida Carbery ran third in the race.

Talbot Bros.' mare, Margaret Hagerman won a $250 purse Tuesday at the Newport track.

Talbot Bros. will give their horse, John Bright, his final preparation at Latonia for the Suburban to be run on June 16th at Sheephead Bay. John Bright will be shipped by express after the work out, and will only be breezed on Friday. Spencer will probably ride him in the big race.

Charles Marshall, of Avon, has had six valuable shorthorn cattle to die within the last two days. It is thought the cattle have been poisoned, and a fund of $100 has been raised by the cattle men of the vicinity to assist in hunting down the man. Marshall has had a number of sheep killed by dogs and he has been shooting all strange dogs which he has found on his farm. He thinks that the cattle have been killed by some one who lost a dog.

Clay & Woodford shipped six carloads of thoroughbred yearlings yesterday to New York to be sold at Sheephead Bay. They were in charge of George Browner and Joe Elgin.

A Swell Society Event.

THE dramatic performance to be given at the opera house Wednesday night by the B. P. O. Elks for the benefit of the Paris Library Fund will be a swell society event. The program will comprise two plays, "In Honor Bound" and "To Err Is Human," besides splendid vocal music by the famous Elk Quartette, vaudeville and other entertaining features. Seats go on sale to-morrow morning at Borland's. Go early and get choice seats, for the house is going to be crowded. Admission, fifty cents to lower floor, thirty-five cents upstairs.

About June 17th is the Time when sleeping cars will begin running daily from Louisville and Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania Short Lines and G. R. & I. to Northern Michigan resorts. For information about schedule, tourist, etc., address C. H. HAGERTY, D. P. Agt., Louisville, Ky., or GEO. E. ROCKWELL, A. G. P. Agt., Cincinnati, O.

A Landmark Gone.

Hon. J. T. Hinton has torn away the one-story brick house on the West side of Main street, near Eighth, and will build on the site a handsome three-story brick business house. The old building was the oldest house on Main street, being built a hundred years ago. There are several other old houses in town, but the landmarks are giving way to the march of progress.

SITUATION IN CHINA.

It Has Reached an Extremely Critical and Dangerous State.

A Strong Imperial Edict Orders the Immediate Suppression of the Boxers—Intervention in Some Form Is Necessary.

Shanghai, June 7.—In consequence of the representations of Japan the landing of a large Russian force at Taku is alleged to have been stopped. It is believed here that should Russia persist in sending a preponderating military force to the front a collision with Japan will inevitably result.

Alarming reports are current here of the hurried completion of the mobilization of the Japanese fleet.

The Boxers and Chinese regular troops have fought a pitched battle near Peking. Many were killed on both sides. There are no further particulars.

Violent discussions regarding the treatment of the Boxers are reported to exist between Generalissimo Qing Lu and Prince Ching Tim. The latter is following the dictates of the dowager empress, and is stoutly supporting the Boxers.

Hundreds of isolated missionaries are apparently being abandoned to the mercy of Chinese mobs.

The body of the missionary Norman, who was killed by the Boxers, has been recovered. It had been horribly mutilated.

London, June 7.—The Central News learns that the French, Japanese, American and Russian warships at Taku have landed more troops.

The situation in China continues to assume a most serious aspect. From reports it appears that the Boxers are closing in on Peking, and that the lives, not only of Americans, but of all foreign residents, are in danger.

That actual warfare has broken out is certain. Adm. Kempff, who is in command of the Newark at Taku, cabled Tuesday to the secretary of the navy:

"Engagement has commenced. Have landed force of 50 more seamen, battalion of marines."

The full text of Mr. Adm. Kempff's message was not made public. It is understood on the very best authority that he has cabled Mr. Adm. Remey at Manila to send him more marines and another gunboat. Adm. Remey has full authority to take whatever action necessary in case of emergency and to act on his own discretion.

The gravest fears are felt, not only for the American missionaries who are left in the interior, but also for American and other foreign residents in Peking. It seems certain that the Boxers are endeavoring to close in on the city, and that they are meeting with but weak resistance from the imperial forces. Should they capture the city it is not believed that the life of any foreigner would be spared. The secretary of state Wednesday cabled to Minister Conger at Peking to co-operate with Mr. Adm. Kempff, who is at Taku, to protect the American legation and American residents. Similar orders were sent at the same time by Secretary of the Navy Long to Mr. Adm. Kempff. He was assured that he would be supplied by whatever force might be necessary to handle the situation.

It is feared at the navy department that the force of marines on the Newark, now at Taku, may not be strong enough to repel an attack of the Boxers and Mr. Adm. Remey has been ordered to send more marines to the Chinese coast.

Peking, June 7.—The situation is growing steadily worse. Events move with much rapidity, and affairs, owing to the excitement of the natives, are so critical that the foreign ministers hold frequent meetings. They feel the need of a free hand for energetic action, without perpetual reference to the home governments.

Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister, is wiring for 75 more marines.

Native employees who have returned from Feng Tai say they left the Boxers openly drilling in the adjacent village.

A strong imperial edict just issued censures the "cowardliness of the imperial troops" and orders the viceroy of Pe Chi Li and Gen. Jung Lu immediately to suppress the Boxers.

The foreign ministers discussed the meeting of a special audience of the empress dowager, but no decision was reached.

London, June 7.—Affairs in China are gradually working up a crisis of the first magnitude. It is generally understood that intervention in some form is necessary.

A special from Shanghai says the members of the majority of the legations at Peking, including the members of the British legation, are sending their families away. It is also said that several prominent Chinese residents are leaving the city.

The total damage done to the Chinese railroad by the Boxers is now estimated at $5,000,000.

Cleveland's Brother-in-Law Dead. Beatrice, Neb., June 7.—William E. Hoyt, brother-in-law of ex-President Cleveland, died at his home in this city of inflammation of the bladder. He was 71 years of age. He was born in New York city and had been a resident of Nebraska for ten years.

Tin Plate Works Closed. Juliet, Ill., June 7.—The Great Western tin plate works, employing 200 men and paying $5,000 wages weekly, closed down indefinitely. The trouble arose over the discharge of an Australian association man.

FIGHTING THE FILIPINOS.

Two More Engagements Have Recently Taken Place in the Philippines.

Manila, June 6.—Maj. Johnson, with two companies of the 29th infantry and 25 men of the 15th infantry, sailed from Romblon to the neighboring island of Tablas, where they disembarked simultaneously in four columns, converging upon a central point. The Americans encountered about 60 rebels, who retreated, and they captured 40, including all the officers, together with 10,000 rounds of ammunition and 24 rifles. Forty men of the 29th regiment, with a lieutenant, were left as a garrison, the others returning to Romblon.

Company I of the 35th regiment and Company G of the 4th regiment encountered 50 insurgents behind stone trenches in the high mountains near Norzagaray, province of Bulacan. There was persistent fighting, and several Americans were wounded. Finally Company G by a flanking movement carried the trenches. Trumpeter Speaker, of Company G, has been commended for "determined bravery" by Gen. Finston.

Troop C of the 4th cavalry, Company A of the 34th regiment and Company A of the 22d regiment are pursuing the captors of Charles D. Roberts, who was taken by the Filipinos while scouting near San Miguel de Mayumo, May 29. It is reported that the Filipinos have separated among the trackless forests.

Forty rifles, with artillery and a considerable quantity of ammunition, have been captured by the Americans in the mountains back of Dinalupihan. Three Filipinos were also taken.

American scouts have destroyed the camp of Gen. Mascardo.

The natives report that Mascardo, with 200 men and 500 rifles, will surrender if given assurances that they will not be imprisoned.

While scouting in the vicinity of Santo Tomas, province of Nueva Ecija, two Americans were wounded.

An investigation into the cause of the burning of Candaba has been ordered. It is alleged to have been done by drunken sailors.

Several local commercial houses recently received anonymous warnings that the Filipino crews of their coastwise steamers intended to kill the white officials whenever a favorable opportunity arose. Consequently the steamers are now running with armed European guards.

The members of the civil commission are now selecting offices and places of residence.

STATUE CAN'T TRAVEL.

Bronze Likeness of Thomas Jefferson Too Big for Tunnels on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Louisville, Ky., June 6.—The statue of Thomas Jefferson, which was presented to the city by I. W. and B. Bernheim, arrived in New York last week from Bremen, but an unexpected contingency has arisen, which will prevent its arrival in this city for a week or ten days. The Pennsylvania road agreed to ship the monument here, but it was found that the tunnels en route are not large enough to admit of its passage through them.

The monument consists of the bronze embodiment of Thomas Jefferson, fifteen feet high, a reproduction of the liberty bell fourteen feet in height and four life-size figures symbolizing liberty, religion, tolerance and prosperity. It is intended to send the monument by way of Buffalo.

APPOINTMENTS.

President McKinley Nominates Several Officers for Porto Rico and Hawaii.

Washington, June 6.—The president Tuesday sent the following nominations to the senate: John A. Russell, of Illinois, to be attorney general of Porto Rico; Samuel C. Bothwell, of Porto Rico, to be marshal of the supreme court of Porto Rico; Wm. H. Elliott, of Indiana, to be commissioner of the interior of Porto Rico; W. F. Frear, of Hawaii, to be chief justice of the supreme court of Hawaii; Clinton A. Galbraith and Antoni Perry, of Hawaii, to be associate justices of the supreme court of Hawaii.

WAR IN NORTH AFRICA.

Thousands of Moors Are Massing at Fighu, Preparatory to an Attack on the French.

London, June 6.—Special dispatches received from Algiers portray a serious situation. Thousands of Moors are massing at Fighu and in the neighborhood, preparing for a determined attack upon the advance posts of the French.

The French columns have joined hands at Zoubia, but the men suffer terribly from heat and thirst, and hundreds of camels died.

The French are preparing entrenchments and are confident of their ability to repel an attack and even to take the offensive against Fighu, if necessary.

Capitol Building Dedicated.

Sante Fe, N. M., June 6.—The new capitol of New Mexico was dedicated with imposing ceremonies. The city was thronged with visitors. A military and civic pageant was reviewed from the capitol steps by Gov. Otero.

Follower Her Babe.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 6.—Mrs. Robert L. Taylor, aged 40, wife of ex-Gov. "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, is dead at her home in this city. Her death was the sequel of the death of an infant.

GREAT BRITAIN'S FLAG

It Floats Over the Public Buildings in Pretoria.

Part of the Boer Forces Have Gone Westward to Meet Baden-Powell and to Make a Show of Holding the Country.

London, June 7.—Lord Roberts telegraphed to the war office as follows: "Pretoria, June 5.—The occupation of the town passed off most satisfactorily and the British flag is now hoisted on top of the government buildings. The troops met with a much more enthusiastic reception than I anticipated. The 3d battalion of the Grenadier Guards lined the square when the march past took place.

"Cwmg to their having been on duty at some distance around town, very few cavalry and infantry were able to take part in the ceremony.

"Several of our officers, who had been prisoners, were among the on-lookers."

London, June 7.—A special dispatch from Lourenco Marques, dated Tuesday, June 5, says:

"Gen. Buller and Christian Botha met at Laings Nek at Buller's request, when a three days' armistice was agreed upon."

The dispatch adds that the British have evacuated Utrecht.

London, June 7.—Military operations in South Africa are apparently at a standstill. For a day or two the tired troops of Lord Roberts are resting, and he is filling the magazines and warehouses at his new base, Pretoria, preparatory to a long chase after the retiring Boers in the direction of Lydenburg. His cavalry are probably seeking to intercept Commandant Gen. Botha.

Some dispatches are to hand which left Pretoria Monday while the fighting was going on outside the city. They come by way of Lourenco Marques. One of them says: "Toward the end of the day, when the British naval guns were shelling the southern forts, a number of projectiles burst, damaging the suburbs. All day armed burghers have been leaving Pretoria, going east. The greater part of the railway rolling stock has been removed.

"Gen. Botha was fighting an essentially rear guard action, his object being not to defend Pretoria, but to delay Lord Roberts until the railway switch had been cleared and the main part of the Boer army had started to withdraw. The British advance appears to have left open to the Boers the best line of retreat along the railway."

The Boers used both heavy and light artillery at Pretoria. What is supposed to have been the last train out of Pretoria arrived at Lourenco Marques Sunday evening. The passengers included a number of foreign volunteers who were leaving the Boers, and also the wives and children of Hollanders. They described Pretoria as destitute of food and clothing. What the Boer officials could not take the natives and townspeople did.

Probably the most important Boer army is at Laings Nek, where both sides are passive. Gen. Rundle and Gen. Brabant have withdrawn a little southward.

Gen. Baden-Powell has extended martial law to the Marico and North Lichtenberg districts. Shots were exchanged between Boer and British patrols 15 miles east of Mafeking on May 28. Part of the forces lately at Pretoria are reported to have gone westward to meet Baden-Powell and to make a show of holding the country through which he and Gen. Huber are moving.

MYSTERIOUS PACKAGE.

It Is in the Post Office at Muncie, Ind., and Addressed to Chas. F. W. Neely.

Muncie, Ind., June 7.—There is a mysterious package in the post office here that the government officers are trying to get possession of. It is addressed to Chas. F. W. Neely, care of Union National bank, Muncie, and bears the postmark of San Jose, Costa Rica. The parcel reached Muncie several days ago. The government officers are not sure as to the contents of the parcel. They think it may contain Cuban postage stamps, or it may have some of Neely's money in it. May be both of these guesses are wrong, and the package may have nothing in it of value to the government. But an effort to get possession of it and learn what it contains was begun by Assistant District Attorney LaFollette, at Indianapolis, as soon as he heard of the package.

Mr. LaFollette filed affidavit with the clerk of the United States court at Indianapolis, giving information of the parcel, and asked that a summons in garnishment be served on David Comack, postmaster at Muncie, requiring him to appear and give what information on the subject he may possess.

Barred From Use of Mails.

Washington, June 7.—The postmaster general has issued orders barring from the use of the mails the Credit General du Canada, of Montreal, and the Credit d'Epargne, of Paris, France. It is alleged that both concerns are conducting lotteries.

Wealthy Dry Goods Man Suicide. New York, June 7.—George J. Browne, a wealthy New York dry goods man committed suicide Wednesday in his bedroom by shooting himself through the forehead. Despondency over sickness the cause.

NEGRO NATIONAL PARTY.

Prominent Colored Men at a Meeting Decided to Nominate a Presidential Ticket.

Philadelphia, June 7.—The first steps looking to the organization of a national Negro party have been taken in this city. Prominent Negroes—bishops, ministers, editors and lawyers—at a meeting, decided to place a presidential ticket in the field, with Negro candidates. The plan is to organize the party in every state of the union and nominate candidates for state and congressional offices.

An executive committee has been appointed to draw up a call for a convention and see to the distribution of circulars outlining the reasons for the formation of a national Negro party.

Bishop Levi J. Capps, the newly elected head of the A. M. E. church in this district, presided at the meeting.

The names mentioned for president were ex-Judge E. J. Walker, of Boston, with P. B. S. Pinelback, ex-lieutenant governor of Louisiana, as running mate; Bishop W. B. Derrie, of New York, with Prof. DuBoise as running mate; Bishop Grant, of Illinois, with Rev. Dr. J. P. Sampson as vice president; Bishop Turner, with Booker T. Washington, of Alabama, as vice president, and Bishop Walters, with T. T. Allain, of Louisville, as vice president.

WHEELER TO BE RETIRED.

It Will Cause a Vacancy in the Grade of Brigadier General for an Army Officer.

Washington, June 7.—It is said at the war department that Gen. Wheeler will be given no military assignment under his commission as brigadier general of regulars, but that he will be placed on the retired list for age within the next few days. This plan of action, it is said, is in accordance with an understanding reached between the president and Gen. Wheeler.

The retirement of Gen. Wheeler will create a vacancy in the grade of brigadier general, which will be permanently filled by the appointment of one of the officers of the army who particularly distinguished himself in action in Cuba, Porto Rico or the Philippines. Gens. Davis, Chaffee, Hughes, Wheaton, Bates and Schwan, all of whom have rendered conspicuous service, are mentioned for preference. They are all colonels in the regular army and brigadier generals of volunteers. There is an impression that Gen. Davis, military governor of Porto Rico, stands the best chance of securing the star.

PREPARING FOR A VOYAGE.

The Battleships Massachusetts and the Indiana to Be Sent Out on a Secret Mission.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Under orders from the navy department the battleships Massachusetts and Indiana, at the League Island navy yards, are being prepared for sea. The orders give no clue as to what service the vessels may be called into, the notice to Commandant Casey being simply to get the ships ready and dispatch them as soon as possible to Hampton roads, where they are to await further orders.

The warships were Wednesday morning piloted out of the reserve basin around to the Delaware river front, where preparations for departure were finished. Both vessels were practically ready to go to sea when orders came, having been thoroughly overhauled at the Brooklyn navy yard before their arrival here.

The two vessels are loaded with enough coal to make a trip across the Atlantic, and they contain large supplies of ammunition. There are 120 men in the reserve crew of each ship.

Storm Damages in France.

Paris, June 7.—Heavy thunder storms in the central part of France have caused serious damage to crops and live stock. There have been several deaths from lightning, and large tracts of country around Thiers are inundated. Seven persons have been drowned, traffic on the railroad has been interrupted and 1,000,000 francs damage has been done at Thiers itself.

Indiana Democrats Nomination.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 7.—The Indiana state convention Wednesday nominated John W. Kern for Governor on the first ballot. The platform reaffirms the principles of the Chicago platform of 1896, and indorses the candidacy of William J. Bryan for president of the United States. John C. Lawler received the nomination for lieutenant governor.

Thirteen Days of Fighting.

Caracas, Venezuela, June 7.—A dispatch from Caracas, department of Santander, Venezuela, says that after 13 days of fighting the Colombian revolutionists have routed the government forces near Bucaramanga, capturing a number of prisoners, including Gen. Pensolana.

Chicago Platform Endorsed.

Bangor, Me., June 7.—The democrats of the Fourth congressional district chose David T. Sander, of Greenfield, delegate at large to the national convention, and passed resolutions endorsing Bryan and the Chicago platform.

Three Men Killed by a Train.

New York, June 7.—Three men were killed by being run over by a passenger train on the Long Island railroad Wednesday near Laurel Hill, L. I. The men were walking on the track when struck.

ASK FOR THE MILITIA.

Prominent St. Louis Citizens Make an Appeal to Gov. Stevens.

Assaults on Inoffensive Passengers Continue, and Several Persons Were Brutally Beaten—Farmers Taken for an Employee.

St. Louis, June 5.—The citizen members of the posse comitatus had their first experience with active service Monday, when several companies were armed and assigned for guard duty at the Park avenue, Eastern avenue and Southern electric power houses of the Transit company. While on guard duty the members of the posse will be subject to strict military discipline.

All but two or three of the divisions of the transit company's system are operating—cars Monday. The interference with passengers in some sections of the city by strike sympathizers is becoming serious. Passengers alighting from cars along South Broadway have been repeatedly assaulted with sticks, stones and fists. Several women have been brutally beaten and their clothing almost torn off. In every instance the police have rescued the victims.

St. Louis, June 5.—Theodore McCornor, of Milwaukee, employed by the Transit Co. as line repairer, was shot while repairing wires. Wound not serious.

Last night the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of John A. Gomez, a member of the posse comitatus on guard at the power house of the Transit Co. at Broadway and Gasconade streets, Wode Sargent, a non-union man, was shot in the ankle. His condition is serious and amputation will have to be resorted to. Sargent's home is in Medina, O.

St. Louis, June 6.—The strike assumed such a serious phase that 50 prominent citizens united in a telegram to Gov. Stevens asking him to call out the militia for the protection of life and property.

Negotiations between the strikers and the St. Louis Transit Co. looking to a settlement of the strike are off for the present, and probably will not be resumed until the strikers agree not to demand the discharge of the men now in the employ of the company, in order that they may regain the positions they gave up when the strike was declared. Attorney Lehmann, for the Transit Co., stated plainly that every man now in the service of the company must be retained in the place assigned him, and until this is assented to by the strikers negotiations as to other matters are useless.

From a rioting standpoint the day was practically uneventful. Assaults on inoffensive passengers continue. Wm. A. Sanders and Wm. Deneke were brutally beaten by a crowd because they rode on a Transit Co. car.

John Krenhall, a farmer, was taken to the city hospital suffering from a number of severe scalp wounds and internal injuries. Krenhall's story leads to the belief that the assault upon him was committed by strike sympathizers who imagined him an employee of the Transit Co.

St. Louis, June 7.—On account of the absence from the city of ex-Gov. Stone, attorney for the striking employees, negotiations with the company looking to a settlement of the strike were not resumed. Chairman Edwards, of the strikers' grievance committee, said that nothing will be done toward effecting a settlement of the differences in dispute until Mr. Stone returns.

Thirty-one affidavits in support of the application for a permanent federal injunction, restraining strikers and others from interfering with the running of mail cars in the city of St. Louis, were filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court.

TRADE WITH PORTO RICO.

Total Value of Merchandise Imported into the Island in Seven Months Was $6,219,119.

Washington, June 7.—The war department Wednesday made public a summary of the regular bulletin of the division of customs and insular affairs concerning the trade of Porto Rico for the seven months ended January 31, 1900. The total value of merchandise imported into the island during this period was $6,219,119.

Merchandise to the value of $1,731,046 was admitted free of duty. The total amount of import duty was $691,678.

During the above period, goods to the amount of $2,692,069 were exported from the island, upon which was collected export duty to the amount of $557.

Three Blacks Wiped Out.

Susanville, Cal., June 7.—Three blocks of buildings in the business section of this place were swept by fire, only two stone buildings escaping destruction. There were no fatalities for fighting the flames, which spread with great rapidity. The total loss is not known.

Price of Food Doubled.

San Francisco, June 7.—Owing to the quarantine, the prices of all kinds of food have nearly doubled in Chinatown. The available supply of rice, it is said, has been cornered by a few Chinese merchants. No new cases of the plague have been reported.

Must Advertise the Truth.

New Orleans, June 7.—In the legislature Representative Wilber introduced a bill making it a crime punishable with imprisonment for a circus or theatrical company to make false representation in advertising.

GAVE SOME POKER ADVICE.

How Comedian Daly "Laid Down" to His Tailor by Telephone.

There probably have been times when Dan Daly was a few cents ahead in a quiet game of draw, but nobody in the alley seems to be able to locate them. His hands never yet have become misshapen or his celluloid buttons across a green cloth. He has got so used to quiet "laying down" that any other turn of affairs, his friends are afraid, would bring about heart failure.

The other day a tailor called him up by telephone, says the Chicago Chronicle.

"Hello," says the tailor.

"Hello," says the telephone girl, "it and mellow. 'Nimble, please.'"

"Umpteen hundred and 'seven," says the tailor.

"Well, hello," says Daly.

"Is Mr. Daly there?" asks the tailor.

"Yes, this is he."

"Oh, is that you, Mr. Daly? I didn't recognize your voice."

"Yes, yes."

"Keep away there, central! Hello there! Hello, there? Hello, Mr. Daly?"

"Well, what's up?" says Daly.

"This is Mr. Taylor," says the tailor.

"Well, what do you want?"

"Hello! Is that Mr. Daly?" shrills the tailor.

"Yes, yes, yes. What are you trying to do?"

"I've got two pairs of trousers here—" begins the tailor.

"Speak louder," says Daly.

"I've got—" begins the tailor again.

"You're too near the phone," says Daly. "Then the tailor says."

"I've got two pairs."

"They're good," says Daly, and he rings off.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

All Democrats May Enter.

The Democratic Congressional Committee met at Lexington Tuesday and rescinded the resolution authorizing a primary election and barring all Democratic voters except those who voted for Goebel.

Committeemen T. E. Moore, Jr., of Bourbon, offered a resolution rescinding the original call, but it was lost by a tie vote. The following substitute was passed at the afternoon session:

WHEREAS, this committee, realizing that the expense of $2,000 for a primary election is too great a burden for the candidates to bear, and that it might prohibit some worthy candidates from offering their claims to this honor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That precinct conventions be held in the various voting precincts in each county in the Seventh Congressional district at 3 o'clock, standard time, on the 6th day of July, 1900, for the purpose of selecting precinct delegates to represent said precincts at the delegate conventions to be held at the court houses of the respective counties on July 7 at 2 o'clock, standard time, 1900, which convention shall select delegates to represent their respective counties in the district convention to be held at Paris, Ky., on July 10 at 2 o'clock, standard time, 1900. The basis of representation of each precinct shall be one delegate for every 100 votes cast for Bryan in 1896, and one delegate for each fraction, if each fraction exceeds fifty votes or over; provided that each precinct shall have at least one voter in said delegate convention. In the district convention the representation shall be as follows: Each county shall be entitled to one vote for every 200 votes cast for Bryan in 1896 and for a fraction of 100 or over.

Resolved, That the persons who will, at the November election, 1900, be legal voting in this district, who are devoted to the principles of the Democratic party, and who by participating in this convention will feel in honor bound to support its nominee and the nominees of the Democratic National Convention, shall have the right and are hereby invited to participate in this convention.

Wm. Slade, of this city, engineer of the local freight running between Paris and Maysville, fell from his engine yesterday morning and broke his left arm. The accident occurred at Millersburg while the freight was standing on the side track. Mr. Slade returned to Paris on the South-bound passenger train.

Circuit Court Docket.

The June term of the Bourbon Circuit Court will begin Monday with the following docket: Equity cases, 238; ordinary, 61; commonwealth cases, 20. The Utterback case has been set for the second day, and the case of Wm. Hukill vs. Agricultural Bank is set for the eighth day.

Safe Blowers In Paris.

Robbers broke into Spears & Sons' up-town warehouse, near the Midland depot, Wednesday night, and blew open the safe securing at it one hundred dollars. The work was evidently done by experts. They drew out the spindle of the combination and opened the outer door, and then blew open the inner door with dynamite.

This warehouse was entered about a year ago by burglars who made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the safe.

An Excellent Performance.

Next Wednesday night, June 13th, the B. P. O. Elks will give an excellent dramatic performance for the benefit of the Paris Public Library Fund. Two entertaining plays, "To Err Is Human" and "In Honor Bound" will be produced by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ray McCann, Miss Margaret Ingels and others, with vocal selections and vaudeville between acts by other clever people. The performance will be first-class. The Elk Quartet will alone be worth the price of admission, as they say at the circus. Get your seats early to-morrow at Borland's, as the house will be crowded. Admission, fifty cents to lower floor, thirty-five cents upstairs.

Arrested On Two Charges.

Constable Joe Williams, an ever vigilant officer, yesterday arrested John Parker, colored, on the charges of detaining a woman against her will, and malicious shooting without wounding. It seems that John Risk, a colored man living near the bridge on the Georgetown pike, sent his daughter, Mary Risk, to a nearby spring for a bucket of water. While at the spring, John Parker grabbed her was detaining her when a girl who accompanied her interfered. May Risk immediately informed her father who went to the spring and was fired upon by Parker.

Lexington Defeated.

The live bird shoot between Lexington and Paris marksmen for $100 per side was won Tuesday afternoon by the Paris marksmen at the Blue Grass Gun Club's grounds in this city.

The score of the Paris men was as follows: Alfred Clay, twenty-nine; Thos. H. Clay, Jr., twenty-eight; Charles R. James, twenty-four. Total, eighty-one. Mr. James grassed twenty-eight, but four fell out of bounds.

The Lexington men scored as follows: Earl Sellers, twenty-seven; Joe Coyle, twenty-six; Victor Dodge, twenty-five. Total, seventy-eight.

The match was witnessed by a number of spectators and was a most interesting event. The Paris marksmen made an excellent record.

State College Commencement.

Miss Willa Bowden and Miss Mamie E. Neal, two bright young ladies of this city, graduated yesterday from State College at Lexington. There were thirty-two graduates. Among the Parisians who attended the commencement yesterday were Mr. J. B. Kennedy, Mrs. Bettie Bowden, Miss Frances Butler, Miss Georgia Grimes and Estelle Daugherty, of Texas.

Gov. Beckham was the guest of honor Wednesday at the class day exercises. Miss Mamie Neal delivered the class oration, her subject being "Then," and Miss Willa Bowden read "The Will."

State College is in a flourishing condition and is doing a grand work. Mr. J. B. Kennedy, who is one of the Trustees of the College, is a member of the Executive Committee, which is to select a site for the erection of a new gymnasium and girls' dormitory, each to cost $50,000.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, begins at Lexington to-day. Mrs. A. T. Forsyth, Secretary of the Lexington District, Mrs. Fletcher Mann and Miss Addie Harrison, delegates, will attend.

Bourbon School Institute

The Bourbon Institute will be held on the Chautauqua grounds at Lexington, Ky., from July 4th to 8th inclusive.

Entrance fee for the time will be $1.50. We pay nothing for the Institute's Conductor.

Board can be obtained near the grounds for $1 per day, or tents can be rented on the grounds large enough to accommodate 4 or 6 persons for $4 and baskets be taken from home.

As three counties hold their Institutes together, we shall meet many educators, and enjoy all the lectures and concerts of Chautauqua proper.

Our Institute hours will be from 8 to 11 a. m. each day. All who expect to teach in Bourbon County next fall, whether they now have schools or not, are required to attend this Institute or forfeit their certificate.

MATTERS MATRIMONIAL.

The Wedding Bells, Announcements, Captid's Mischief

Congressman Vincent Boreing, of Kentucky, has been sued for a divorce by his wife.

Miss Florence Saxton Rutherford Hornsey and Mr. Albert Hurst Fletcher were married at the bride's home in Lexington Tuesday evening.

MEREDITH-CLARKE.

In the presence of a vast assembly of friends Wednesday night at the tastefully decorated Episcopal Church the hearts and lives of Rev. J. Scott Meredith and Miss Sarah Louise Clarke were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by the beautiful Episcopal marriage ceremony, performed by the Rt. Rev. Lewis Burton, Bishop of the Diocese. The wedding was a beautiful event.

The groom, Rev. Meredith, is the popular young rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in this city, and is a Virginia gentleman of splendid attainments, who has resided in Paris for several years. His bride, Miss Clarke, is the very lovely and estimable daughter of Dr. Chas. Clarke, of Third street. She was becomingly attired in a wedding gown of white organdie, trimmed with white chiffon. Her veil was caught up with lilies of the valley, and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

While the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was being sung by a choir of thirty voices, with Miss Nannie Wilson presiding at the organ, the wedding party entered the church by the main aisle in the following order: First came Rev. H. E. Spears and Mr. W. L. Clarke, ushers, preceding Miss Olivia Buckner and Miss Anna Bruce McClure, bridesmaids, gown in white Paris muslin, white ribbon sashes, carrying white carnations. Next came Mr. Ford Brent and Mr. Albert Hinton, ushers, followed by Miss Nellie Meredith (of Virginia) and Miss Fannie Johnson, bridesmaids, attired in white Paris muslin, white ribbon sashes, carrying white carnations. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Lucy Johnson, in white Paris muslin, white ribbon sash, carrying white carnations, followed by the bride and her father, Dr. Clarke. The groom and his best man, Rev. J. Austin Chinn, of Covington, entered from a door at the North side of the altar. The party formed a semi-circle, and as Dr. Clarke gave the bride away Bishop Burton performed the impressive ceremony. Miss Wilson played the Mendelssohn march as the party left the church.

Rev. Meredith and wife left on the 10:15 L. & N. train for a trip to Washington and other Eastern cities. The bride's going-away costume was a suit of gray cloth.

After an absence of six weeks, which will include a visit at the groom's old home, Rev. Meredith and bride, will return to Paris to reside.

They have received a large number of presents besides the hearty good wishes of many friends.

HUMPHREYS-WARD.

Rev. Lowellyn Humphreys and Miss Luella Vashti Ward were united in a beautiful wedding yesterday afternoon at the Cherry Spring Church, near Newtown.

The groom, Rev. Humphreys, is an eloquent and successful young minister of the Presbyterian Church, residing at Fort Giesean, Mo. He was formerly pastor of the Cherry Spring Church, where he met Miss Ward.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ward and is an exceptionally lovely young lady who possesses many admirable qualities.

The bridesmaids were Misses Etta and Mayne McClintock, of this city, and Miss Bertie Wallis, of Hutchison.

The groomsmen were Rev. Marion Humphreys, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., Messrs. Carey Ward, of Scott county, and Wm. Wallis, of Mississippi. Messrs. R. P. Dow, Jr., of this city, Owens Wallis, of Lexington, Robert Beatty and Wallis Ramsey, of Scott, were the ushers.

Rev. Humphreys and bride left after ceremony for Lexington to start on a wedding trip. Rev. Humphreys is to be congratulated upon winning such a charming and estimable bride. They have many friends to wish them happiness.

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is falling and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centred and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

She folded up the worn and mended frock. And smoothed it tenderly upon her knee. Then through the soft web of weel red sock She wove the bright wool, musing thoughtfully: "Can this be all? The great world is fair; I hunger for its green and pleasant ways. A cripple, prisoned in her restless chair, Looks from the window with a wistful gaze.

"I can but weave a faint thread to and fro, Making a frail wool in a baby's sock; Into the world's sweet tumult I would go. At its strong gale my trembling hand would knock."

Just then the children came, the father, too. Their eager faces lit the twilight gloom. "Dear heart," he whispered, as he nearer drew, "How sweet it is within this little room!

"God put my strongest comfort here to draw When thirst is great and common wells are dry. Your pure desire is my unerring law; Tell me, dear one, who is so safe as I? Home is the pasture where my soul may feed.

This room a paradise has grown to be, And sunny where these patient feet shall lead. Can it be home for these dear ones and me?"

He touched with reverent hand the help-less test. The children crowded close and kissed her hair: "Our mother is so good, and kind, and sweet. There's not another like her anywhere! The baby in her low bed opened wide. The soft blue flowers of her timid eyes. And viewed the group above the cradle-side. With smiles of glad and innocent surprise.

The mother drew the baby to her knee, And, smiling, said: "The stars shine soft to-night. My world is fair, its edges sweet to me. And whatsoever is, dear Lord, is right!"—Mary Hilley Smith, in Wesleyan Methodist.

The shot told on Evelyn. In the presence of her father, she dreaded the disclosure that Winkle, in his anger, might make with regard to her intimacy with Ronald; but the old gentleman paid no heed to their innuendoes.

"He certainly is foolhardy," he joined in; "but to save me I can but admire the fellow's courage. Why," the colonel snapped his fat fingers, "if he keeps that sort of thing up, or tries to interfere when the man is caught, I wouldn't give a pinch of snuff for his life. Some chap like Syd Hart would draw a bead on him, and be proud of it till the end of his days."

Then Mrs. Lancaster came and put her arms round Evelyn's waist.

"Don't act hastily, my dear," was her whispered warning; and she drew the girl to the other end of the veranda. "Don't you see what he wants?" she asked; "he is trying to rouse your father's suspicions."

About five o'clock the occasional shouts in the swamp grew louder and nearer, and into them was suddenly blended the ominous baying of dogs.

"The hounds!" announced the colonel, tragically.

"And they are out for business," gleefully added the captain; "they are headed this way."

Evelyn and Mrs. Lancaster stood leaning against the balustrade, their faces towards the swamp.

"Come inside, dear," said the latter. "It will do no good to witness it."

But our young lady only shook her head.

After a few minutes the shouting and baying of the hounds died down. The colonel gave it as his opinion that they were off the track, but that it was only a question of time before they would catch the scent again.

Two hours passed. The sun sank behind the distant mountain peaks. The sky beyond was as red as blood. The wisps of clouds lying against the mountain-sides looked like glaciers. The landscape took on a delicate veil of gray. Objects in the distance began to assume vague shapes. The dark outlines of the swamp were fast merging into the night.

"They have been taking a zig-zag course," proclaimed Hasbrooke from his end of the veranda. "The rascal will be as limber as a rag when he is tired. There are no two ways about it; it's all up with him; the darkness will not be in his favor; nothing but blood will satisfy the fury of that mob."

"Do you mean that the sheriff will not be able to control them?" queried Mrs. Lancaster, who had begun to walk about nervously.

"He'd have to have a lot of backbone to even try it," answered her host. "He'd be knocked out like a straw in a hurricane; murderers of old women stand no chance with these crude Anglo-Saxons."

It had grown dark, save for the light of the moon, which had just risen and looked up like a huge conflagration beyond the tree-tops. For yet half an hour only an intermittent shout or the muffled outburst of barking was heard from the swamp, but each time the sounds were nearer. Old Ephraim, as if anticipating his master's desires, drove round the horses and trap.

"A good idea," approved the colonel; "gentlemen, we might as well get nearer. I think I know where they will come out."

"By all means!" cried the captain, with enthusiasm. He was the first to get a seat in the vehicle, and was followed by his host and Mr. Hardy.

When the trap had gone, Miss Hasbrooke retired to her room with some complaining allusion to her nerves, and Evelyn and Mrs. Lancaster remained on the veranda, guarded only by the old negro, who stood like a sentry on duty at the foot of the steps.

"Oh, Mrs. Lancaster!" exclaimed Evelyn. "I feel as if he is going into danger—that they will kill him!"

For a moment the old woman made no response, and when she did it was with evident emotion.

"I pray God that he may not be harmed," Her tone was almost a prayer in itself.

The baying and shouting were now very near. Half a mile away torch-lights like fireflies began to flit along the swamp. The line of men was now in the open. They seemed to be headed in one direction, and it was not many minutes before all the lights had run together. Evelyn knew that the prisoner was in the center of that cluster of torches. The shouting had died down to a far-off murmur. Then into the yellow, smoky glare the two observers saw a white horse rearing and plunging. Presently the frightened animal seemed under the control of its rider, and a loud, ringing voice like that of an experienced open-air speaker, broke the stillness.

"It is he!" gasped Evelyn, and her eyes seemed set in their sockets as she peered through the gloom. "God have mercy on him!"

Mrs. Lancaster's arm tightened round the girl's waist, but her voice lay dead in her throat. The distance was too great to distinguish the words of the speaker, but his stentorian tones seemed to cut the dark intervening space like a knife. At times a tempest of cries and yells would rise from the mob and drown the leading voice; but gradually, persistently, it would struggle up to mastery again. This went on for about ten minutes, and then the two on the veranda heard several loud voices raised in threatening tones and there was a sharp ringing report of a pistol. The cluster of lights widened and the white horse was seen to plunge away from the crowd, the heat of his hoofs being the only sound in the still air.

"Ugh! Somebody hit dat time," grunted old Ephraim. "My Lawd, what a pity!"

Evelyn gazed into the white face of her friend, her terrified eyes seeking a confirmation of her own fears. She could not frame the words for the question in her heart. Mrs. Lancaster did not know what to make of it all, but she was afraid some calamity had befallen Ronald Fanshaw.

"I could not see if anyone was on the horse as it broke away," she faltered.

"I thought I saw him fall off," said Evelyn. "Oh, if—if he is dead—"

Evelyn's voice broke. They were both silent for a few minutes and then they saw the torches going out one by one. The people were going home. There could be no doubt now. Something had happened. Ronald's voice was heard no more; could it be stilled forever? Then they heard the trap returning. The two women advanced to the steps as the horses were reined in at the door. The occupants alighted. As her father ascended the steps Evelyn caught both his hands in hers. "What did they do, father?" she asked. The old soldier laughed.

"Do?" he exclaimed, enthusiastically. As he rubbed his hands together, "why, they did nothing. Jade Fanshaw's son rode into their ranks and made the grandest speech I ever listened to in my life. He turned the very marrow in my bones to ice. I was cold one minute and as hot as old Nick the next. I believe we were all hypnotized. From the minute he began to show up the horror of lynch law and the risk they were running of hanging an innocent man, I believe I'd a-died rather than let the mob harm the fellow. He stood there with more ropes on him than he could carry and didn't look big enough to harm a fly. After Fanshaw got their attention the first thing he demanded was that they let the prisoner tell his story. He gained his point and the little chap began to talk. You could hardly hear what he said, he was so fatigued and hoarse. 'In the name of God and Christianity,' he said, 'let me have a chance to prove I'm not guilty.'

"Syd Hart, Thad Williams and their faction were too full of whisky and hatred to be moved by mere eloquence; they were there for blood, and they were going to have it; so they tried to drown out what the prisoner was saying. But Fanshaw, towering above them all on his horse, finally succeeded in getting him heard and the boy's story satisfied me of his innocence. He said the money he had was his savings from two years' hard work in an iron foundry in Chattanooga and that he was taking it home to his widowed mother, who depends on him for her support. He said he was tramping home on foot to save the expense of a railroad ticket. Somebody asked him why he had tried to escape from the sheriff, and he said he was afraid of being lynched—that he had heard of the treatment men accused of crime received in these mountains.

"Then some one asked him about the blood on his hands and shirt, and he showed them a cut on his leg which had been bound up and was bleeding.

"About that time Syd Hart became obstreperous again. Captain, I saw you talking to him just then. I wondered if you had said anything to inflame—"

"I thought I might reason with him," broke in Winkle, with a start. "I saw he was clear out of his head, wholly unreasonable, you know."

"Well, you seemed to have struck stony ground for your good seed," laughed Hasbrooke, "for he got wilder than ever."

"Oh, do go on!" cried Mrs. Lancaster. "What became of Mr. Fanshaw?"

"I was coming to him," said the old man. "As soon as he appeared on the scene, the sheriff, who had, hardly opened his mouth in any sort of remonstrance, picked up his courage and began to try to get possession of the prisoner; but nobody paid any attention to him. Hart and Williams had their ears.

However, young Fanshaw saw how the thing was going and brought it to a focus by the most unexpected and risky move I ever saw. Pretending that he wanted the people in the edge of the crowd to see how small the prisoner was, he lifted the little fellow onto his horse in front of him, and before anyone suspected what he was up to, he had wheeled his horse and was off like the wind. Syd Hart pulled his revolver and aimed it at Fanshaw's back, but Dave Fanshaw knocked the weapon up, and it went off without harming anyone. Then Dave held a pistol at Hart's head and dared him to stir a muscle. This quarrel drew the attention of the mob from the prisoner and Fanshaw rode him away without any opposition. The sheriff followed at his heels. They have gone with him to the jail in Danube. He'll be safe there."

Evelyn was closely watching Winkle; she had read him better than had her father.

"It was the noblest deed I ever heard of," she said, exultingly.

Winkle responded with a shrug and a frown.

"Fanshaw will pay well for it, in all probability," he said, sullenly.

Despite her habitual command over her emotions Evelyn's face fell, but she did not gratify her enemy by replying to his thrust.

Her father agreed with Winkle.

"Yes," he said, "it is not over yet by any means. Syd and Thad will certainly be bent on revenge, and Fanshaw will be their target. I never saw a more malignant countenance than Hart's when he realized that his plans were thwarted. I guess he will lie in wait for Fanshaw on his return from Danube."

Grown suddenly faint, Evelyn turned into the hall. Mr. Hardy's voice followed her and beat pleasantly on her ears. "I certainly take off my hat to that sort of courage," he was saying. "Fanshaw has the right kind of grit. It's a pity the world has not more men like him."

Evelyn's window commanded a view of the road leading from Danube to Fanshaw's house, and the remainder of the night, sleepless and distraught, she sat gazing across the fields at a spot she knew he must pass on his way home. And there, in that awful still suspense, she read her heart as she had never read it before.

"Yes," she confessed to herself, aloud, because she loved to hear her own voice pronouncing a truth which seemed to have quickened her soul into a new and higher life. "Yes, I love him! I love him!"

About five o'clock, after it had grown light—when the sky in the east was turning golden—her long vigil was rewarded. Moving along the road, with a tired step, she saw a white horse, and a moment later she recognized the rider. Then she put her icy hands to her face and burst into tears of relief.

An hour later, with a mother's solicitude, Mrs. Lancaster stole into her room and found her asleep, her head resting on the bare window board. The good woman comprehended it all, and, raising the girl's face, she kissed her, and eyelids till they opened.

"He is safe!" were Evelyn's first words. "I saw him come home. I intended to go to bed then, but I was saying my prayers here when I fell asleep."

Mrs. Lancaster's lips twitched sympathetically as she put Evelyn to bed and sat by her stroking her brow until sleep came again. Then the old lady sat with her chin resting in her hand, quite thoughtful.

"I really don't know which way my duty lies," she mused. "She loves him—she loves him just as I should have done at her age, and she will suffer over giving him up as I suffer when he was torn out of my life."

CHAPTER IX.

The guests and family at Carnleigh usually came down to breakfast irregularly, but this morning by eight o'clock they were all at the table, including Evelyn. The colonel, who had been out for an early business walk with one of his overseers, was the last to sit down. And as he took his place at the head of the table he had the air of a man anxious to be questioned. He had picked up a piece of news.

"Well," he began, with twinkling eyes, "it seems that Ronald Fanshaw was not spending his breath and riding his horse to death for nothing."

"So he reached the jail all right, did he?" inquired Mr. Hardy, as he put a spoonful of whipped cream into his coffee.

"Oh, yes, he made that trip all right, but the news has just come from Wilkin Station, on the other side of the mountain, that a negro has been arrested who has already confessed to the crime of killing the old woman."

"So the boy was innocent, after all!" cried Hardy.

"Yes; the sheriff nabbed the wrong bird at the start, and if it had not been for Fanshaw his body would have been swinging at the sport of the wind this morning."

"And a widowed mother would have been without her son," put in Mrs. Lancaster, with telling effect.

"Fanshaw did only what any man would have done who believed in the prisoner's innocence," said Capt. Winkle, with an icy smile at no one in particular.

But Mrs. Lancaster was more than a match for him. "It's only what one man did do," she retorted. Thereupon Winkle stirred his coffee in moody silence.

"I am sorry it was Ronald Fanshaw who is to get all the credit," remarked Caroline Hasbrooke, coldly. "Since he has taken up the study of law it looks as if he has a pretty good idea of his importance. Things are coming to a pretty pass when such people as the Fanshaws get into the professions usually held by gentlemen."

"Don't kick against the pricks" (it was a favorite expression of her father's). "The common people have been rising into prominence since the birth of creation."

"And the better class has been degenerating," remarked Mr. Hardy, with a slow smile. "As far as I am concerned, I'd rather employ a man like Fanshaw to defend me, if I were on trial for my life, than some man with more ancestry and less individual force."

"Bravo! bien dit," applauded Mrs. Lancaster, and she rose to accompany Evelyn out on the lawn.

The dew lay as heavy as raindrops on the grass and hung like scintillating gems from the gorgeous hollyhocks, the Indian chieftains, and the roses flared like billows of red on the silvery green-sward of the sloping terraces. Mrs. Lancaster was first to break the silence.

"I need not tell you I'm glad that boy was innocent," she began. "I am especially glad because it emphasizes the nobility of Mr. Fanshaw's act. I am going to drive over to his house in the pony cart this morning. I have something to say to him."

Evelyn raised her great eyes in astonishment, but she uttered no comment.

Mrs. Lancaster's voice shook perceptibly as she went on:

"Nothing has ever affected me so powerfully as all this has. Last night the impassioned fervor of his voice while he was speaking down there brought back some of the tenderest and saddest recollections of my young married life. It reminded me of a speech in favor of secession that my husband made, just before the war broke out. There seemed to be a ring in Mr. Fanshaw's tones like my husband's. It may have been only my imagination, and the great distance, but it drove me nearly wild with the old pain. And last night in thinking of Mr. Fanshaw's danger, it seemed to be my husband who was in peril. Really, I did not sleep a wink. I went to the window a hundred times. I saw Mr. Fanshaw returning this morning, and then I drew my first easy breath. Oh, Evelyn!" (Mrs. Lancaster was gazing into the girl's eyes) "what is the matter with both of us?"

Evelyn shook her head; her rich, abundant hair glistening like threads of burnished gold in the sun.

"I know what's the matter with me," she said, with a little laugh. "I hope something else is wrong with you."

Mrs. Lancaster sighed. "When I get back from his house I may tell you what I am going for, but I shall not now—no, I shall not now."

(To Be Continued.)

An Incomplete Education.

Ignorance, even dense ignorance, is often to be met with in this country of public schools, but it is seldom that one finds a man in all his senses whose mind does not contain some suspicion of a world beyond his potato-patch or logging-camp. Among the European peasantry, however, education is often absolutely unknown. Sad to say, a conversation which occurred between a French conscript recently taken from his farm and the adjutant of his regiment is not unique, although it may sound so.

"Come!" said the adjutant. "You are a Frenchman—a soldier; do you know why you are here instead of working in the fields? I ask you why you are here—a soldier? You give no answer. Have you never heard of the Germans?"

"No, my adjutant."

"You have never heard of the Germans? What is Germany?"

"I don't know."

"Are you a Frenchman or a German?"

"I don't know."

"This is wonderful! Where were you born?"

"At Vaucouleurs, my adjutant."

"At Vaucouleurs, and not a patriot! Did no one ever tell you of the invasion?"

"No, my adjutant."

It would be hard for a Jacques of Vaucouleurs to grow up in the United States.—Youth's Companion.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat. It naturally digests the food and acts Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency. It instantly relieves and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Sick Headache, Gastralgia, Cramp, and all other results of imperfect digestion. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. W. T. BRONKS.

Be Careful

No woman can be too careful of her condition during the period before her little ones are born. Neglect or improper treatment then endangers her life and that of the child. It lies with her whether she shall suffer unnecessarily, or whether the ordeal shall be made comparatively easy. She had better do nothing than do something wrong.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is the one and the only preparation that is safe to use. It is a liniment that penetrates from the outside. External applications are externally right. Internal medicines are radically wrong. They are more than humbugs—they endanger life.

Mother's Friend helps the muscles to relax and expand naturally—relieves morning sickness—removes the cause of nervousness and headache—prevents hard and rising breasts—shortens labor and lessens the pains—and helps the patient to rapid recovery.

From a letter by a Shreveport, La., woman: "I have been using your wonderful remedy, Mother's Friend, for the last two months, and find it just as recommended."

Druggists sell it at $1 per bottle.

Small in size great in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills that cleanse the liver and bowels. They do not gripe. W. T. Brooks.

The blood is strained and purified by the kidneys. No hope of health while the kidneys are wrong. Foley's Kidney Cure will make healthy kidney and pure blood. Clarke & Kenney.

All who suffer from piles will be glad to learn that DeWitt's Which Hazel Salve will give them instant and permanent relief. It will cure eczema and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. W. T. Brooks.

Ivy poisoning, poison wounds and all other accidental injuries may be quickly cured by using DeWitt's Which Hazel Salve. It is also a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Take no other. W. T. Brooks.

Reports show that over fifteen hundred lives have been saved through the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Most were cases of croup, asthma, whooping cough, bronchitis and pneumonia. Its early use prevents consumption. W. T. Brooks.

Unless food is digested quickly it will ferment and irritate the stomach. After each meal take a teaspoonful of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and will allow you to eat what you need of what you like. It never fails to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. It is pleasant to take. W. T. Brooks.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries. oct-27-1y

CANCER IS NOT INCURABLE

Time was when Cancer was considered as incurable as leprosy. Physicians and friends could give little relief or encouragement to one afflicted with this terrible disease. Even now doctors know of no remedy for this fearful malady; while admitting it to be a blood disease, they still insist that there is no hope outside of a surgical operation, and advise you to have the Cancer cut out, but at the same time cannot assure you that it will not return. You may cut or draw out the sore, but another will come in its place, for the disease is in the blood—is deep-seated and destructive, and beyond the reach of the surgeon's knife or caustic, flesh-destroying plasters. The blood must be purified and strengthened, the system relieved of all poisonous, effete matter before the Cancer sore will heal.

S. S. S. is the only medicine that can overcome this powerful and contaminating poison and force it out of the blood. It builds up and invigorates the old, and supplies new, rich, life-giving blood. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy; no mineral can be found in it; the roots and herbs from which it is made contain powerful purifying properties that act directly upon the blood system and make a safe and permanent cure of Cancer. It has cured thousands, why not you?

Cancer is not always inherited; your family may be free from any taint, yet your blood may become so polluted that a severe and stubborn form of the disease may develop from a sore or ulcer on your tongue or other part of your body; a slight bruise or hurt, a little pimple on the eyelid, lip or nose, a small lump on the jaw or breast, a harmless looking wart or mole, and other causes so insignificant as to attract at once: it will cleanse your blood and prevent the formation of cancerous cells.

Dr. E. J. Phelps, of Heta, Mo., writes: "A small pimple came on my jaw about one inch below the ear on the left side. At first it gave me no trouble, but I did not think it was anything serious until it began to grow and became much inflamed. At the same time the sore began to spread and I tried everything I could hear of, but nothing did me any good. I then bought a box of S. S. S., and after taking several bottles the Cancer healed, and there is no more sign of the disease. This was two years ago, and I am still enjoying perfect health."

Send for our special book on Cancer; it contains much information that will interest you. Write to the Swift Specific Company, and for any advice or information wanted; they have made a study of Cancer and all blood diseases. We make no charge whatever for this.

STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat—Odd Bits of Gossip.

Stephen Crane, the American author and war correspondent, died at Badenweiler, Baden. He was thirty years old.

Mme. Calve has decided to abandon the operatic stage for the drama. She will first try the French and then the Italian drama.

Olga Nethersole has been sued by Marcus Mayer, her manager, and also by Clyde Fitch, author of "Sapho", for about $10,000, claimed to be due them in royalties and percentage on the play.

Messrs. Ramsey and Porter have secured for the opening attraction at the Grand Opera House next season, the Herald Opera Co., of New York. The cast includes Etta Stetson, late of the N. Y. Casino; Mae Glover, late of the Bostonians; Louise Hammon, late of Francis Wilson; Harry Nelson, late of Della Fox; Thos. F. Callahan, late of White Opera Co.; George J. Williams, late of Grand Opera Co.; Harry Carter, late of Sousa's El Capitano Co. The engagement will be for two nights and a matinee, and books containing tickets for the three performances will be sold in advance.

The management has been very successful in their bookings for next season, and the Paris people can rest assured of seeing some of the leading attractions.

To Asthma Sufferers.

Lawson Elvidge of Barrington, Ill., says he was cured of chronic asthma, a long standing by Pholey's Honey and Tar. It gives positive relief in all cases asthma, so this disease, when not completely cured, is robbed of all its terrors by this great remedy. Clarke & Kenney.

Question Answered.

Yes August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers, and grandmothers, never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appedictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries. oct-27-1y

Silk Culture In Paris! . . .

On next Tuesday morning, June 5th, we will place on exhibition in our show window 500 Silk Worms, a novelty to be enjoyed by young and old. These Silk Worms are the product of this country. They will feed for the first two or three days, and then begin to spin the silk in cocoons. Now we will treat you to the rare spectacle of seeing the first stages of the important production of silk. No similar exhibition has ever been given here before, and while the worms are spinning in the window, we will put on display in our store our entire stock of

of all shades and qualities and offer them at 10 Per Cent. discount from our already low prices. This reduction should interest you all, as our stock comprises only the latest designs and shades. Come and get you a waist pattern. After the Silk Worms are through spinning, we will present our customers with the cocoons. Bring the children and let them enjoy a sight never before seen in Paris, amusing and instructing at the same time.

RESPECTFULLY,

G. L. HEYMAN
